11th November 2022

Poppy Appeal

Our prefects have been selling poppies this has been amazing as usual. We will let you know the amount raised as soon as they send us a certificate.

Today the children watched a live British Legion Assembly and did a two minute silence along with many schools across the country.

Festive Christmas Family Forest Fun Session

Come and join us for our second ever festive Christmas

Family Forest Fun session on Sunday 18th

December 2022 10am-12noon. Further info email:

IMPORTANT RE SCHOOL DINNERS

Please remember to order your child's dinner online.

Meetings arranged with Class Teachers

If you have arranged a meeting in person or online with a class teacher and you are unable to attend at the last minute please can you contact the school office on 01663 797332 so the teacher can be informed. Thank you.

Whole School Trip to Stockport Plaza for Panto

By now you should have seen a letter on Class Dojo regarding this trip on Tuesday 20th December at 10am.

There is a copy at the office if you are unable to open it.

Football Cards and Pokémon Cards

As from Monday 14th November any Football/Pokémon type cards will not be allowed in school. Unfortunately as you can imagine there have been lots of incidents with these cards that the staff are having to spend time sorting out. Thank you for your support with this.

Anti-bullying Week Next Week- Odd Socks Day

As part of anti-bullying week the children will be doing activities in classes and the Year 3/4 children will be having workshops provided by CIST. In support of this we are asking children on Monday 14th to wear odd socks.

NO NUTS IN SCHOOL PLEASE!

We do have a child with a severe nut allergy. Thank you.
