

All About the Police

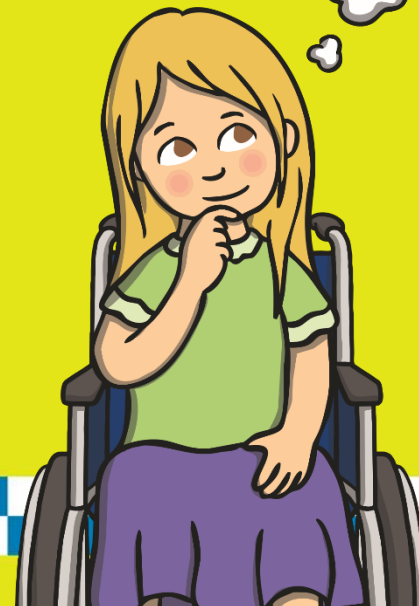

What Do You Already Know?

Do you know
what some police officers wear?

Do you know
some of the jobs
police officers
do?

Can you talk about where police officers
work?

next

What Do Police Officers Wear?

Radio

This can be used to communicate with other Police officers.

Did you know that not all Police officers wear a uniform?

Hat

Some police officers wear a hat as it helps people to recognize them. The hat usually has a badge to show which police force they work for.

High-Visibility Jacket

A high-visibility jacket helps officers to be seen easily, particularly on the road or at night.

Can you think of any other equipment a police officer would need?

next

What Do the Police Do?

Part of their job is to help keep us safe and make sure that everybody follows the law.

What is the law? Do you know any of the laws we have in our country?

next

Have you ever seen a police officer? How have they helped you?

What Do the Police Do?

Police officers do many things to keep us safe, such as:

investigate crimes

attend emergencies

teach children how to keep themselves safe

next

Where Can You Find the Police?

Some police officers travel in helicopters. Usually, they use helicopters if they are looking for or following someone.

Police officers are usually based in police stations. They often do paperwork and perform other duties that need to be recorded.

You will often see police officers out in the community. They are sometimes driving in police cars, on bikes or walking in the street.

next

Police Animals

Did you know some animals work with the police too?

Police sometimes ride horses. This is usually to help keep big groups of people safe at events.

Specially-trained dogs work for the police to help them to solve crimes.

Dogs have very sensitive noses and they are excellent at sniffing out dangerous things.

next

What Have You Learnt?

What animals work with the police?

What do the police do?

Where can you find the police?

What do police officers wear?

That's right!

You call 999.

finish

